

Stephen Bishop, I Go Numb

(Stephen Bishop/Tom Snow/Andrew Gold)

On first impression

I found you

Too good to be true

you touched my cheek

said, "You'll do"

I was shaking in my shoes

'Cause I never thought

this strange attraction would give me such a strong reaction

I look in your eyes and I get paralyzed...

I Go Numb

I can't speak

Everytime I look at you

My knees go weak

I wanna die

inside

Everytime I look at you

In a World of White Noise

You gotta stay cool

Can't lose your control

And all the games I played

When I was a fool

Now it's you I wanna hold

'Cause I've waited for some inspiration

A Woman of Sophistication

But when I'm close to you

I can't seem to move...

(Chorus)

I asked the Moon above

Said, "tell me if what I feel is real?"

Or just an accident of love

'Cause now I'm living

In her World

and I really think

I'm falling for this girl...

I Go Numb

I can't speak

Everytime I look at you

I feel so weak

I wanna die

Inside

Everytime I look at you
