

Stephen Bishop, There There

Wide awake
dreaming of you
I watched my sky fall
I lost a photograph
of you,
laughing
Now I must learn how to crawl..
I think I've nearly lost my mind
Do you love me?
I ask, "Is there another man?"
and all you say is..
There There
There There
It's been two weeks now in my little hell
still you won't say where you are
I sent a telegram to your Parental retreat
There is no refuge too far
I think I've really lost my mind
Do you love me?
I bought a ticket to your arms and all you can say is there there..
There There
There There
The last obsession
from my love career
I have to see you Children are playing now warm rain is falling
As we lay down on green grass..
