

Stephen Covell, Phenomenon

I'll admit I didn't see you coming
But you came just the same

A simple touch
Some like it rough
It's all that you didn't have to say

It's nothing short of a phenomenon
When you and I we get it on
Collide till reaction
I find this attraction undeniable
Beads of sweat curl up under my lip
She's hip, she's cool to me

Share your story, perhaps a pillow
Or two
Are you into me? 'Cause I'm into you

You got the gift to uplift
Forget about the little shit

So unexpected
But always welcome
She's become perfection
In my eyes I've fallen onto her cloud
Like a siren, she rings proud as I sing loud
I'm all about it callin' out

It's nothing short of a phenomenon
When you and I we get it on
Collide till reaction
I find this attraction undeniable
Beads of sweat curl up under my lip
She's hip, she's cool to me

So unexpected
But always welcome
She's become perfection
In my eyes I've fallen onto her cloud
Like a siren, she rings proud as I sing loud
I'm all about it callin' out

It's nothing short of a phenomenon
When you and I we get it on
Collide till reaction
I find this attraction undeniable
Beads of sweat curl up under my lip
She's hip, she's cool to me
