

Stephen Fretwell, Do You Want To Come With Me

Green eyed monsters on the shore
Playing hand in hand
'd love to give them all they need and leave them dancing hand in hand
'm going away
'm going away
Where the wind beats heavy on the sand
Do you want to come with?

Silly green eyed monsters on the shore playing holding hands
'd love to give them what they really need and leave them all dancing hand in hand
'm going away
'm going away
Where the wind beats heavy on the sand
Do you want to come with?
