Stephen Malkmus, Hopscotch Willie

Hopscotch Willie swore he was framed he was a mark not a killer so he did claim it was a classic example of a fall guy facts all point to skinny white ass he had the motive and the means and a weapon to match and if he managed to escape the long arms of the law i will be shocked because i know that he is going down the dick said to willie, you're in the clink so save the the pity party for the county shrink i'm sure they'll find some profound parallels to mind you can't blame me for my guilty face it was a gift from my mother, my father in place of all the love they should have given they just left me with this dirty dna that makes you think i'm the one you want do a little hopscotch, do a little hopscotch, do a little hopscotch, willie hopscotch. do a little hopscotch, willie hopscotch do a little hopscotch, willie hopscotch do a little hopscotch, willie hopscotch do a little hopscotch willie hopscotch willie hopscotch willie hopscotch willie hopscotch willie hopscotch willie!

this all went down not far away just a weak stone's throw from sheepshead bay, a corspe was found in pieces underneath the pier willie was found not far from the scene he was panting like a pitbul, minus the mean he was panting like a pitbull, panting like a pitbull, pantin like a pitbull, panting like a pitbull minus the minus the mean
