

Steppenwolf, Lost And Found By Trial And Error

Words and music by John Kay

So, once again I hurt someone

Because I found out that she's not the one

I'm looking for

So, once again I blame someone

Because I know that she can't use the love
I have in store

And now she's gone
And I'm glad her story ends

Still I wish I had been kinder

We could have parted just like friends

So, one more time I've played, lost the game

Another face in the past, without a name
Back in the night to find a light

And hoping this time I'll be right

I know you don't know me

But I need your company

Don't wanna be alone tonight
You can trust me girl

You'll be alright

Looked at me with big brown eyes

She said "yes" to my surprise
And now I call her in the morning

And I see her every night

I see her in the evening

And when I'm with her, I'm alright
