

Steps, I Surrender

Maybe I wanted to be free
I wanted time to be me
I tried to fly so high
But something's changed
Inside of my heart
And now there's the sweetest pain
Oh I can't explain
It's time I asked
What am I running from and to?

Ooh, I surrender baby
I need your love to save me
Now I know that I was wrong
I'm coming back 'cos love is strong
Yeah I surrender baby
So stop my heart from breaking
It's crazy but now that we're through
The only thing I want is you
So surrender too

Maybe we're only halves alone
And it's together we are whole
And now I've thought it through
Well it all works out it's you I love
Every single day I picture your face
But it's not enough
And I can't fight the truth no more

Ooh, I surrender baby
I need your love to save me
Now I know that I was wrong
I'm comin' back 'cos love is strong
Yeah I surrender baby
So stop my heart from breaking
It's crazy but now that we're through
The only thing I want is you
So surrender too

Now I know what love is worth
And it's too much to lose
And I know there's nothin' else
Nothin' else but you
So surrender too

Ooh, I surrender baby
I need your love to save me
Now I know that I was wrong
I'm comin' back 'cos love is strong
Yeah I surrender baby
So stop my heart from breaking
It's crazy but now that we're through
The only thing I want is you
So surrender too
