

Steps, My Best Friend's Girl

Tonight she'll be waiting in the place if she can get away from a secret rendezvous (secret rendezvous) we got to keep our heads down low there's places we can't go cos we both know the harm that it would do

If he knew about us
It would break his heart in two forever
Life without her
so do it for the part i wish i never fell
For my best friends girl

I know its wrong and hes a friend today its got to end our love was no excuse we've got to hide the way we feel and the moments that we steal time could not heal the harm that it would do

If he knew about us
It would break his heart in two forever
Life without her
so do it for the part i wish i never fell

Its got to end this ain't no way to treat a friend everytime we trying breaking it up well it always starts again i can't let her go its wrong and we both know its out of our control

If he knewwwwwwww it would break his heart in two forever and do it for the part i wish i never fell for my best friends girl shes my best friends girl x4
