

Stereo Fuse, Everything

I remember you do you remember me too
Born on the 14th of July the smell of roses made her cry
And though youre going far from home rest assured youre not alone

Cause I would give everything that I own
Id give you my heart and this skin and these bones
The sun the moon the earth the sky Id never even stopped to wonder why
I would do anything
I would give everything
to be your everything

It seems like such a long long time since your body crossed my mind
But I think that you should know it wasnt I who had to go

Cause I would give everything that I own
Id give you my love and this heart made of stone
The sun the moon the earth the sky The motorcycle that I like to ride
I would do anything
I would give everything
To be your everything

But if ever you should stray just sing along and I will play
Look into your hands Im slipping through them like a tiny grain of sand

I remember you do you remember me too
Seems like such a long long time since I held you near and called you mine

Cause I would give everything that I own
Id give you my heart and this skin and these bones
The sun the moon the earth the sky a brand new car that you and I could drive
I would do anything
I would give everything
to be your everything
Everything
