

Stereophonics, Half The Lies You Tell Ain't True

You could lick or chew,
Tongue in style tonight,
Champagne drag queen suit,
Pinstripe outta line, it's time to try how,
Blisters on your feet,
Blisters up your spine,
If I could choose from two
I'd mime to be a smile, ha ha ha ha

But when you rely on a lie that's true,
And no one believes in the things you do
'Cause half the lies you tell ain't true
I'm gonna find out, I'm gonna find a piece of you

You could pick and lose,
Diesel dreams for crime,
I should win and choose,
Colours undersize,
A naked fake that's a
Face that fits for two,
Sex brings out the spies,
Hanging from your feet,
Hollywood star style, ha ha ha ha

But when you rely on a lie that's true,
And no one believes in the things you do
'Cause half the lies you tell ain't true
I'm gonna find out, I'm gonna find a piece of you

But when you rely on a lie that's true,
And no one believes in the things you do,
Cause half the lies you tell ain't true,
I'm gonna find a piece of you
But when you rely on a lie that's true,
No one believes in the things you do
Cause half the lies you tell ain't true,
I'm gonna find a, I'm gonna find a, I'm gonna find a piece of you
