Steve Earle & The Dukes, Amerika V. 6.0 (The Be

Look at ya Yeah, take a look in the mirror now tell me what you see Another satisfied customer in the front of the line For the American dream I remember when we were both on the boulevard Talkin' revolution and singin' the blues Nowadays letters to the editor and cheatin' on our taxes Is the best that we can do.

Look around There's doctors down on Wall Street Sharpenin' their scalpels and tryin' to cut a deal Meanwhile, back at the hospital, we got accountants Playin' God and countin' out the pills Yeah, I know, that sucks - that your HMO Ain't doin' what you thought it would do But everybody's gotta die sometime And we can't save everybody That's the best that we can do.

Four score and a hundred and fifty years ago Our forefathers made us equal as long as we can pay Yeah, well maybe that wasn't exactly what they was thinkin' Version six-point-o of the American way But hey we can just build a great wall Around the country club To keep the riff-raff out until the slump is through I realize that ain't exactly democratic But it's either them or us And it's the best we can do. 00:22, 14 April 2006 (PDT)00:22, 14 April 2006 (PDT)00:22, 14 April 2006
