Steve Earle & The Dukes, Comin' Around

(with Emmylou Harris)

Early this mornin' I was washin' my face Thinkin' bout goin' to town Sick and tired of hangin' around this place Waitin' on the blues to track me down Bless my soul maybe I'm comin' around Been lyin' low but maybe I'm comin' around

I've been runnin' nearly all of my life
Far and as fast as I can
It may sound funny but I'm thinkin' this might
Be about right where I came in
Well I don't know maybe I'm comin' around
Got a ways to go but maybe I'm comin' around
Finally layin' my burden down

One fine day I'll be free Til it comes I'll go on

My heart's a little ragged but it's all that I got So I'm gonna give it a try Look out world I'm comin' ready or not I don't wanna let you pass me by Here I go maybe I'm comin' around I'm a little bit slow but maybe I'm comin' around Finally layin' my burden down
