

Steve Kilbey, Dive

High, after the summer
Find all the wells are drunk dry
Miles and miles of starburn
Branded on the hide of the night

Diviner

Low, before the winter

Loser, these vessels are full
Drop between drop of moonshine
Slipping on the surface of our day

Diviner (water underground)
Diviner (rock ceiling fossil pool)
Diviner (blind transparent fish)
Diviner (seek the liquid dark)
