

Steve Lukather, Right the Wrong

Times have changed
Nothing ever stays the same
That brings me down

I'm amazed
Promises of hope and change
They never ever seemed
To come around

I'm tired of waiting
For the world to end
We can't let it disappear

We are the future and the past
We gotta make it last
Before it's gone

We can't just
Let it slip away
Into yesterday
It's been too long
Let's right the wrong

Remember when
Before the age of virtual friends
When people looked
Into each other's eyes

Sad to say
That feeling now it's gone away
Society is deep in its demise
