Steve Lukather, Swear Your Love

I'm holding on It's all that I can do I can't imagine Me without you All alone I close my eyes And wake up screaming in the middle of the night This heart Don't need it anymore

Swear your love Say that you remember Share your love Hear me calling out your name I swear my love Wait a little longer How will it feel to be left Standin' there all alone

You're on your own If you walk through that door I'm kust a man I can't give anymore Somewhere deep inside There's a memory that keeps you run and hide You gotta know You got a place to go

(chorus)

Somewhere deep inside There's a memory that keeps you run and hide You gotta know You got a place to go

(repeat chorus, fade)
