Steve Miller Band, True Fine Love

(Steve Miller)

I ain't complainin' But I'd sure like to find me A true, fine love Someone another That's as sweet as your mother A true, fine love

Cause the time is right For walking in the moonlight I have suddenly found I'm ready to settle down So come on get your rocks off I'm gonna knock your socks off

You'll see, oh yeah So come on pretty baby We're going to raise a family

There'll be no hesitatin' Cause I'm so tired of waitin' For a true, fine love Someone another Like a sister or brother A true, fine love

Cause the time is right For walking in the moonlight I have suddenly found I'm ready to settle down So come on get your rocks off I'm gonna knock your socks off

You'll see, oh yeah So come on pretty baby We gonna raise a family

Well I ain't complainin' But I'd sure like to find me A true, fine love Someone another That's as sweet as your mother A true, fine love

Cause the time is right For walking in the moonlight I have suddenly found I'm ready to settle down We'll have a boy for you, we'll have a girl for me Come on baby raise a family

So come on get your socks off I'm gonna knock your rocks off
