

Steve Perry, It Won't Be You

(Perry, Gurvitz, Brock)

Summer's here
Now you're gone
I will remember your touch
So my dear, after all
Life still goes on without you

When I think about you
I still get weak
I get weary and I can't sleep
No matter what I try
It won't be you

From that moment
There's been no other
I've tried to find
Another lover
But I know it won't be you

One more time
One more year
We were so good
For so long

Wanting you
Wanting me
September love
Are you there

Oh, when I think about you
I still get weak
I get weary and I can't sleep
No matter what I try
It won't be you

It won't be you

When I think about you
I still get weak
I get weary and I can't sleep
No matter what I try
It won't be you

From that moment
There's been no other
I've tried to find
Another lover
But I know it won't be you

No, It won't be you
It won't be you
It won't be you
No, No, It won't be you
It won't be you
