

Steve Perry, It Won't Be You (Writing Demo)

IT WON'T BE YOU

(S. Perry, A. Gurvitz, T. Brock)

Summer's here, now you're gone

I will remember your touch

So my dear, after all

Life still goes on without you

When I think about you

I still get weak

I get weary and I can't sleep

No matter what I try

It won't be you

From that moment, there's been no other

I've tried to find

Another lover

But I know it won't be you

One more time

One more year

We were so good

For so long

Wanting you

Wanting me

September love

Are you there?
