

Steve Wariner, What I Didn't Do

I didn't cheat, I didn't lie
So her leaving took me by surprise
Just a note on the table saying we're through
At first I went crazy, so it took me some time
But I finally read between the lines
It's not what I did
It's what I didn't do.

I didn't tell her, each day I loved her
I took it for granted, somehow she knew
I didn't hold her when she needed a shoulder
It's not what I did, it's what I didn't do.

Now, it's easy to see why her love died
She was planning her nights by the tv guide
She needed me with her more than I knew
I was too busy working getting ahead
When I should have been home loving her instead
It's not what I did it's what I didn't do

I didn't tell her, each day I loved her
I took it for granted, somehow she knew
I didn't hold her when she needed a shoulder
It's not what I did, it's what I didn't do.

Ohh, it's not what I did, it's what I didn't do...
