Steve Wariner, What I Didn't Do

I didn't cheat, I didn't lie So her leaving took me by surprise Just a note on the table saying we're though At first I went crazy, so it took me some time But I finally read between the lines It's not what I did It's what I didn't do.

I didn't tell her, each day I loved her I took it for granted, somehow she knew I didn't hold her when she needed a sholder It's not what I did, it's what I didn't do.

Now, it's easy to see why her love died She was planning her nights by the tv guide She needed me with her more than I knew I was too busy working getting ahead When I should have been home loving her instead It's not what I did it's what I didn't do

I didn't tell her, each day I loved her I took it for granted, somehow she knew I didn't hold her when she needed a sholder It's not what I did, it's what I didn't do.

Ohh, it's not what I did, it's what I didn't do...
