

Stevie Wonder, If Your Love Cannot Be Moved

Feat. Kim Burrell

Move, Mo Mo Move

Move, Mo Mo Move

[Stevie]

We can't say we shall

And not fight through hell

You can't say we will

And not dare to deal

[Kim]

You can't shout out peace

And then vanish in the crowd

You can't ride a storm

Without some affect

You can't steal the spoil

And not pay the debt

[Stevie]

We can't wave a sign

That spells of evil and feel truly proud

We can't sing a song with no melody

You can't say you won without unity

[Kim]

You can't form a line

If you're too scared to stand alone

You can't pray for grace

And then smack her face

You can't speak of hope

And then crack a joke

[Stevie]

You can see if time knows

How much you've grown

[Both]

Put a face to your somebody

[Chorus]

Can you say your name

Or would you rather stay unknown

Can you show your face

Or are you fearful of it shown

Can we feel your heart

Or does it beat when you're alone

Lift the glass up high

Say that your truth will never lie

If your love cannot be moved

Moved, moved mo mo moved

[Kim]

You can't look at me

And not see yourself

You can't say for them

And not for yourself

[Stevie]

You can't truly bless

And not bless the pitiful

You can't save the rich

And desert the poor

You can't hear their cries

And just close the door

[Kim]

You can't say you're dumb

And not take it to the wall

You can't benefit

From one's detriment

You can't find the serum

And not heal the sick

[Stevie]

You can't free the slaves
To enslave them differently
You can't see the right
Only from your sight
You can't see the wrong
And just go along

[Kim]

Or is that the way you would want your fate to be

[Both]

Put a face to your somebody

[Chorus]

Can you say your name
Or would you rather stay unknown
Can you show your face
Or are you fearful of it shown
Can we feel your heart
Or does it beat for you alone
Lift the glass up high
Say that your truth will never lie
If your love cannot be moved
Moved, moved, moved, if your love
If your love cannot be moved

[Stevie]

You cant make a pledge

[Kim]

And then cut the script

[Stevie]

You cant say the words

[Kim]

And no move your lips

[Stevie]

You cant be confused
And still say you understand

[Kim]

You cant be a friend

[Stevie]

Not through thin and thick

[Kim]

You cant be a clique

[Stevie]

But endanger split

[Kim]

You cant even the sham
And then grab the biggest pan

[Stevie]

You cant say you do

[Kim]

But then show you dont

[Stevie]

You cant say you will

[Kim]

Make sure you wont

[Stevie]

You cant work for change
And not do what you need to do

[Kim]

You cant give your all

[Stevie]

And take back all you give

[Kim]

You cant live to die

[Stevie]

But you can die to live

[Kim]

Or is that too much to ask
Of you and you
[Both]
Put a face to your somebody, oh yea, yea, yea
[Chorus]
Can you say your name
Or would you rather stay unknown
Can you show your face
Or are you fearful of it shown
Can we feel your heart
Or does it beat for you alone
Lift the glass up high
Say that your truth will never lie
If your love cannot be moved
Moved, moved, moved, if your love
If your love cannot be moved
Mo, mo, mo, mo
If your love cannot be mooooo
If your love cannot be mooooo
Mo, mo, mo, mo
Mo, mo, mo, mo
Mo, mo, mo, mo
