

Stir, New Beginning

I'd sing a song for you
You know I'd even change my tune
I'd pull you up
When you drown in the water, baby
I'd jump the highest mountain
Swim across the ocean blue
Could never imagine you
With another, baby

Bridge:

Am I having a breakdown?
Am I going insane?
You do me then leave for another girl
I wake up every morning crying
You're not there

Chorus:

I get the feeling that
You're looking for a new beginning
You change your mind every minute
One day you want me
Then the next you leave
It's never-ending
I'm getting used to it

Tell me how to get to you
To get back in you're heart
You make it hard
Should I even bother, baby?
My tongue is tied in two
And I believe I need another drink
I know you love to watch me
Sink to the bottom, baby

Bridge:

Am I having a breakdown?
Am I going insane?
You do me then leave for another girl
I wake up every morning crying
You're not there

Chorus:

I get the feeling that
You're looking for a new beginning
You change your mind every minute
One day you want me
Then the next you leave
It's never-ending
I'm getting used to it

I'm getting used to it

I don't care what you do now
I don't care what you do now

I get the feeling that
You're looking for a new beginning
You change your mind every minute
One day you want me
Then the next you leave
It's never-ending
I'm getting used to it

You say you want me now

But when you need me just forget it
I'm getting used to it

I'm getting used to it
