Stone Sour, Bother

HEAR ME!!

Remember all the times you bent our truth and crossed our lines? All things considered, it was just our normal way of life But somewhere in the middle, we got caught and dragged away So my tribunal brings us here so I can fall today All - you want is soulless All - you got to break us All - I have to do is Stop - your fucking nonsense I CAN'T BETRAY! I CAN'T BETRAY - MYSELF! I stand before you as a victim, as the system rots I couldn't focus, so I staggered when I heard the shots There are no labels and no rehabilitation here You are surrounded by the very fucking thoughts you fear All - you want is soulless All - you got to break us HEAR ME!!! All - I have to do is Stop - your fucking nonsense I CAN'T BETRAY! I CAN'T BETRAY - MYSELF! I watch the hope I had disintegrate before my eyes I take a minute and reflect on all your fucking lies Behind the door, you have two choices, but you don't get to choose You can survive or you can die - either way you lose All - you want is soulless All - you got to break us All - I have to do is Stop - your fucking nonsense I CÁN'T BETRAY! I CAN'T BETRAY - MYSELF! Choose!
