

Stone Sour, Reborn

I am walking through your streets, I am looking in your windows
I am elemental now, you'll never even know I'm there
I am watching over you, I am living in the shadows
I am just a word to you, but I am very real and cold

Cold to all of this
Cold to how you feel
Cold to all your lucid reason

I am everything, I am anything, I am automatic
I am yesterday, I am everyday, I am gonna be, yeah

I am all there is to know, I am all that you've forgotten
I am enigmatic now, you never even knew my name
I am dressed tragedy, I am by design immortal
I am just the last one left, I am always here and old

Old and very strong
Old as all you feel
Old as all the world around you

I am everything, I am anything, I am automatic
I am yesterday, I am everyday, I am gonna be

Reborn "(This is the start of something)"
Reborn "(This is the start of something)"
Reborn "(This is the start of something)"
Reborn "(This is the start of something)"

I am just a secret now, I am just a vague illusion
I am lie you tell yourself that you never truly did believe
I am a whisper in the dark, I am a victim and the killer
I am almost ready now, but you insist I don't exist

That I don't exist
That I don't exist
That I don't exist

I am everything, I am anything, I am automatic
I am yesterday, I am everyday, I am gonna be

Reborn "(This is the start of something)"
Reborn "(This is the start of something)"
Reborn "(This is the start of something)"
Reborn "(This is the start of something)"

Yeah, uh, uh, uh
Motherfucker, motherfucker, motherfucker
