

Stone Sour, Some Kinda Monster

These are the eyes that cant see me
These are the hands that drop your trust
These are the boots that kick you around
This is the tongue that speaks on the inside
These are the ears that ring with hate
This is the face thatll never change
This is the fist that grinds you down
This is the voice of silence no more
These are the legs in circle run
This is the beating youll never know
These are lips that taste no freedom
This is the feel thats not so safe
This is the face youll never change
This is the god that aint so pure
This is the god that is not pure
This is the voice of silence no more
We the people?
Are we the people?
Some kind of monster
The monster lives
This is the face that stoness you cold
This is the moment that needs to breathe
These are the claws that scratch these wounds
This is the pain that never leaves
This is the tongue that whips you down
This is burden of every man
These are the screams that pierce your skin
This is the voice of silence no more
This is the test of flesh and soul
This is the trap that smells so good
This is the flood that drains these ayes
These are the looks that chill to the bone
These are the fears that swing over head
These are the weights that hold you down
This is the end that will never end
This is the voice of silence no more
We the people?
Are we the people?
Some kind of monster
The monster lives
This is the cloud that swallows trust
This is the black that uncolors us
This is the face that you hide from
This is the mask comes undone
Ominous
Im in us
