

Stonewall Jackson, I Pawned My Past Today

Ten dollars for my wedding band that's all the man would pay
But then I slipped it from my hand I pawned my past today
Not long ago we said goodbye and went our seperate ways
Ten dollars for a love gone by I pawned my past today

[ piano ]

With this ring goes memories of happy yesterdays
So if I cry excuse me please I pawned my past today
To me true love is life itself guess I'll just waste away
No love no life there's nothing left I pawned my past today
