

Stonewall Jackson, Sadness In A Song

(Oh the sadness in a song)

In a crowded honky tonk music starts to play

Happy couples all around dance the night away

At a table in a corner I sit all alone every song's the sad one since my baby's gone

Oh the sadness in a song when the only one you love has gone

Anyway they play the tune it comes out loneliness and blue

When the one you love has gone oh the sadness in a song

[piano]

While a lonesome city sleeps to pass away the time

By myself I walk the streets with a troubled mind

Up ahead the neon sign it says All Nite Cafe

Pour a cup of coffee I can hear the jukebox play

Oh the sadness in a song when the only one you love has gone

No matter how they play the tune it comes out loneliness and blue

When the one you love has gone oh the sadness in a song oh the sadness in a song
