

Stonewall Jackson, Stateside

The Japan's moon is bright tonight and Tokio is full of life
Busy people everywhere but busy people just don't care
I wanna go stateside oh Lord I wanna go stateside
In and out the honky tonks but nothing's there I really want
Sat awhile and look around get up and leave and walk the town

[ guitar + piano ]

Clashy girls don't understand the lonely life of a sailor man
When his heart is far away to a girl in the USA
I wanna go stateside oh Lord I wanna go stateside
They laugh and say a man won't cry but I can't keep my blue eyes dry
Been away about two years I know I've cried a million tears
I wanna go stateside oh Lord I wanna go stateside
