

Stormwarrior, Deceiver

A masquerade, hiding the truth
The weapons of glory, preparing to shoot
Wearing steel with a false belief
Supporting the wrong, no heart for the scene
Push for the gold, payment's the law
Sold the soul to the commercial war
Creating new heroes, buying their fame
Deceiving the past, the faith will be slayed

They are riding with the wind of the false ones
They are fighting the proud and the brave

Deceiver
Die by the fire
Deceiver
Burn at the stake
Deceiver
Fearing the true

Wielding the sword forged in the past
They're unable to fight, unworthy to last
Values are lost, no blood formed of steel
A lifetime to falter, a lifetime to kneel
They follow corruption, they follow their lies
Deceit and betrayal, their unholy life
The oath of allegiance they never have sworn
Their falsified hearts ruled by evil force

They are lying with the face of the false ones
Fallen warriors are crying in their graves

[Chorus]
