

Story Of The Year, A Silent Murder

It's a silent murder
It's a grave that sings your song
It's a quiet failure
It's the one that makes you strong

We are heading down a long empty road
We pass lost souls blinded by the cold

Watch the fire burn out
Watch the curtains slowly close
Waiting on the final words your heart already knows

We are heading down a long empty road
We pass lost souls blinded by the cold
By the cold

It's a silent murder
It's a grave that sings your song
