

Story Of The Year, Razorblades And Cupcakes (Old Version)

Yeah, yeah.

Yeah, Yeah.

Walking example of you.

Wait for the silence.

Talking backwards to you.

It meant nothing to me.

(Chorus)

When the sun goes down

I'll remember this

and every word you said.

We've got to find our way back home.

Perfect timing for you.

You'll run 'til your legs break.

Here's my reminder of you.

It meant nothing to me.

(Chorus)

When the sun goes down

I'll remember this

and every word you said.

We've got to find our way back home.

Yeah wipe your eyes because it can't rain everyday.

It can't rain every day.. GO!

GO!

Cause I'll drive 'til theres no where for me to go.

No stops signs hold me back.

Find what this is worth to you.

Cause I'll be holding on forever...

Forever!

(Chorus)

When the sun goes down

I'll remember this

and every word you said.

We've got to find our way back home.

When the rain stops falling

I'll start again and forget the words you said because I'll be holding on forever...

yeah forever...

Go!
