

Story Of The Year, September

Seconds lie for a minute, dont let go
A place you cant be in now I feel all alone
Things are wrong and different here, dont run now
And everything is so mixed up, it freaks me out
I cant help but feel this pain inside my mind, Oh yeah
I cant help but feel this love in my mind oh whoa owhoa-oooh
Now its built up in my head as I let go
You feel tingling inside and on your bones you start thinking about what you have done.
And now its time to realize that you were wrong.
I cant help but feel this pain inside my mind, Oh yeah
I cant but feel this love in my mind oh whoa owhoa-oooh
Picture me
Picture pain
Picture death
Picture me!
I cant help but feel this pain inside my mind, Im broken
I cant help but feel this love inside my mind, Oh yeah
I cant help but feel this pain inside my mind, Im broken
I cant help but feel this love in my mind, oh whoa owhoa-oooh
