

Strange Celebrity, Dangerous

Listen to me
Tell me what you hear
Is it love
Or my imagination
Still I can't breathe
Without her near
Have I lost my salvation
And I can't live this way
What to do, what should I say
She's so dangerous that I don't want to try
So fabulous it eats me up inside
She's all that one could dream
She gives you wings that make you fly
And shatters your world with just a smile
She's all that one could dream
And dangerous to me
Every day I wake up
Longing for her smell
I wonder why
I can't touch her
It's killing me
Without her near
Still I wait
To wake up beside her
And I can't live this way
What to do, what would I say
I want to give in to her desire
I want to walk in the fire
