

Strange Celebrity, Paralyzed

I've opened all the doors
And I've looked at what's inside
To many choices when will all these voices die
Whatever brought me here
So tattered and so torn
My life's a rainy day my hopes all slip away
I need to be reborn

(Chorus)

It's way too hard to analyze
What makes me swim against the tide
My past and future both in line
I'm standing paralyzed
A puppet with no strings
Wanting to make a move
If I believe and finally achieve it
What would be left to prove, to prove

(Repeat Chorus)

(Bridge)

I can't walk and I can't crawl
So how much further can I fall
Is this all in my mind

(Repeat Chorus)
