

Strangelove, She's Everywhere

In my sleep
I heard her voice so clearly
Whispering my name
I know that she was here
Walked the streets
Trying to leave her ghost behind me
I saw her face
In everything so clear
In the city streets around me
In the things I left behind me
In the sky that does surround me
Everywhere she's all around me

Forget your dreams
Forget the very nature of your dreams
Has gone away
She's living with the straights of yesterday
Forget yourself
Forget the very essence of yourself
Has gone away
Just remember this
She'll never see you through

Waiting for some one to take me to
Somewhere I won't leave behind me
Somewhere I won't leave behind me to

In my life
I've lost what I held dearly
Thrown it all away
There's nothing takes her place
I pace the bars
Trying to fill the hole inside me
She tore away
And there's nothing in her place
In the city's filth around me
In the things I've left behind me
In the sky that does surround me
everywhere she's all around me

Forget your dreams
Forget the very nature of your dreams
Has gone away
She's living in the blood of yesterday
Forget yourself
Forget the very essence of yourself
Has gone away
Remember this she'll never see you through Waiting for some one to make me to
Somewhere I won't leave behind me...

Everywhere she's all around me...
Forget your dreams
Forget the very nature of your dreams
Has gone away
Just remember this
She'll never see you through.
