

Stratovarius, 4th Reich

Sign of the times and writings on the wall.
They show me, it's time has come.
Order of a new kind, we will all find stronger than never before.

Things are pretty much the same like in year '38. Oh won't we ever learn.
This time it's gonna be different.
So let's all join our hands and let the children sing, for the last time.

4th Reich is rising, Can't you see the signs?
4th Reich is rising, For the last time.

Let's just press more money, don't worry about inflation.
We got to have more weapons to carry on.
Unemployment and sorrow, cannot be avoided at this point.
But things will be so different, when they are ruling the world.

4th Reich is rising, Can't you see the signs?
4th Reich is rising, For the last time.

What will be left to our children? Is this our final destiny?
