Stratovarius, Fantasia

Welcome to my world Close the gates You've come from far away I've been expecting you You are the holders of the key To the story that never ends

Fantasia

Resides deep in your heart Leave your worries far behind Fantasia Let the freedom ring the bell Let us all unite Borders made of hate are gone Nations singing the song of peace In Fantasia

How would it be? A world without hate Without heaven, without hell No wars, no arms, no religion, no God Just your own truth

(Fantasia can arise in you)

Fear and darkness prevail But finally they will fail

Fantasia
Resides deep in your heart
Leave your worries far behind
Fantasia
Let the freedom ring the bell
Let us all unite
Borders made of hate are gone
Nations singing the song of peace
Fantasia

Fantasia
One day when love conquers all
Mankind will prevail
No more jealousy
Fantasia
No more envy no deceit
The nothing is gone
Future's bright and glorious
We are all victorous
We are kings in Fantasia
