Stratovarius, Find Your Own Voice

No Christ, God nor religion Gave me the answers I was looking for Arrogant hypocrites Selling the key to heaven's door

I've got my own way I don't care what you say You speak your truth and I speak mine

Find your own voice Unleash the power within Go find your own truth and let (the) others be Let your own light guide your way through life Find your own way Make your own paradise

Find your own voice It's your own choice
