

Stratovarius, Firefly

Burn the night
I am chasing a firefly
I've got the eye of the tiger
I have the will to fight
You are my trial by fire
You are the one tonight
Calling my burning heart
I tried so hard to resist you
I tried to keep away
Torn apart
You glow so bright in the darkness
Your light is here to stay
I wait for the sunrise
Yearn for your glow
Keep trying to chase wherever you go
My burning heart, torn apart
I'm stealing your power
You're stealing my heart
Burn the night
I am chasing a firefly
You shine so bright
I am chasing a firefly
You are my firefly
I'm in the dark
You are my guiding light
I follow your heartbeat
Burn the night
I am chasing a firefly
Burning heart
I feel you taking me higher
I'll follow anywhere
Torn apart
You are the one I desire
You are my cross to bear
I wait for the sunrise
Yearn for your glow
Keep trying to chase wherever you go
My burning heart, torn apart
I'm stealing your power
You're stealing my heart
Burn the night
I am chasing a firefly
You shine so bright
I am chasing a firefly
You are my firefly
I'm in the dark
Burn the night
I am chasing a firefly
Burn the night
You shine so bright
You are my firefly
