

Stratovarius, The Abyss Of Your Eyes

I feel like I'm drowning,
Trying to catch my breath.
Don't know what is happening,
there's no sense of time.

Deep underneath my skin,
Feeling the pain within hear my cry.
I feel drown towards you can't resist,
I don't know why.

My life is changing I cannot recall,
Where I've been before
The abyss of your eyes,
Meaning so much more,
Am I losing my mind

The sun doesn't shine,
But your eyes light my way,
I've found what I've been searching for,
My love won't go astray.

Deep underneath my skin,
Feeling the pain within hear my cry.
I feel drown towards you can't resist,
I don't know why.

My life is changing I cannot recall,
Where I've been before
The abyss of your eyes,
Meaning so much more,
Am I losing my mind.

So many years my drifting heart has wandered around,
Don't turn on me won't you stay by my side.

Where I've been before
The abyss of your eyes,
Meaning so much more,
Am I losing my mind.

Where I've been before
The abyss of your eyes,
Meaning so much more,
Am I losing my mind.

Where I've been before
The abyss of your eyes,
Meaning so much more,
Am I losing my mind.
