

Stratovarius, Twilight Symphony

I'm entering into the woods.
I left everything behind.
I have to follow my heart.
Don't know what I'm looking for.
Starlight's guiding my way to old black oak where we meet.
Now it's full moon.

Other side is calling me.
Singing dancing
this is no dream.

Twilight Symphony

The feast is going on.
Rapture never seen before.
The fury is taking us
to a new level soon.
Hearing voices everywhere
telling me what to do.
Giving me answers.

Other side is calling me.
Singing dancing
this is no dream

Twilight Symphony

The spirits are calling me
I only wish to die,
there is no question why...
anymore.
