

Stratovarius, Venus In The Morning

It's 4 in the morning
I'm gazing the sky with Millions of stars.
A moment before the dawn
the endless universe fills me all.

Where are you now?
Alone just like me and Venus in the Morning?

I touch your face that's filled with pain,
I kiss away the tears from your eyes.
I've waited YOU for 8000 days.
Now I've come here to set you free.

But where are you now?
Alone just like me and Venus in the Morning?

Forget the future don't live the past.
Live for today because life goes too fast.
Go find the key to you divine mind,
open the door so many answers you'll find
Like Venus in the Morning.
