

Stray Cats, Gonna Be Your Rock

When I come to a part of town
That I ain't never been before
When I had all I can take
And I just can't take anymore
Can't run away and forget it
Can't leave a part of yourself behind
Well you can think life ain't worth livin'
Now girl you better think twice
I'm gonna take a little time to remember
I ain't gonna let you give up
Gonna be your rock to hold onto
Gonna be your rock to hold onto
Gonna be your rock to hold onto
Gonna be your rock to hold onto
When you come home tired and weak
And you know you gotta do it again
Just remember that I'm waiting here for ya
I'm gonna make you feel brand new again
Gonna be your rock to hold onto
Gonna be your rock to hold onto
Gonna be your rock to hold onto
Gonna be your rock to hold onto
Well you can think life ain't worth livin'
Now girl you better think twice
I'm gonna take a little time to remember
I ain't gonna let you give up
Gonna be your rock to hold onto
Gonna be your rock to hold onto
You ain't gonna move me nowhere
You ain't leaving me behind
Gonna be your rock to hold onto
Gonna be your rock to hold onto
Gonna be your rock to hold onto
Gonna be your rock to hold onto
Gonna be your rock to hold onto
