Stream of Passion, Wherever You Are

I believe that this game is far from over Your eyes, everchanging Shred my beliefs Elusive as air, your million faces Share a smile, shed a tear Then you're hiding again Wherever you are, I'll find you... And leave my life behind Wherever you are, I'll find you... I'm leaving now Every moment of faith Flows unattended Pressing thoughts so misleading Into my head Come out of the dark Don't keep me waiting For the pain is too deep... Hear me! Come out! Free me!
