Street Dogs, Unions And The Law

Like Bob said the times are a changing Unfortunately for us bossman's rearranging Doesn't care about your wife and kids But only the gold that is his Won't hear eleventh hour underbids Or part with the assets that he thinks are his Only knows how to downsize He'll see an increase by losing you

Not even aware that his moral code has died

Unions and the law... What's wrong with being treated fairly Unions and the law... We've got to defend ourselves somehow

Society's a much faster place now Seems like protest lost out somehow I once heard a composer sing I can't stand up for falling down Got to rise up and be accounted for Maybe that sentiment will arrive Back in town but only time Itself will reveal this concept

In ending this rant we'll stay idealistic

(Chorus)

Unions and the law... What's wrong with being treated fairly Unions and the law... We've got to defend ourselves somehow Unions and the law... They got to come back stronger today Unions and the law... We've got to defend ourselves somehow

Like Bob said the times are a changing Unfortunately for us bossman's rearranging Doesn't care about your wife and kids But only the gold that is his

(Chorus)
