Street Sweeper Social Club, The Oath

The Oath

The lamppost could swear

it had seen me before

And stared

as I

stumbled through the motel door

The dirty mirror

also thought I looked familiar

But commented only that my suit was brilliant

The TV

bolted to the wall and cracked

Remembered how I cried

and said Id never come back

In

the lacquer of the table

I had carved my oath

With a burnt butter knife

And

this is what I wrote

I pledge

to get their foot off my neck

Instead

shall demand my respect

III fight

even if I wont win

Alright

the

beginning is the end

I pledge

to make the bosses cringe

Instead

well get

some justified ends

III fight

til the system is gone

Recite

this

ex-losers song

(Yeeee!)

Alright, Muthafuckas!

(Coo-Coooo!)

Fight,

Muthafuckas!

(Yeeee!)

Alright Muthafuckas!

(Coo-Coooo!)

Fight,

Muthafuckas!

I pledge

to live life as lesson

That said

even my words are

weapons

III fight

show love in motion

Alright

mountains move from

oceans

I pledge

there is no surrender

Instead

III expose their

agenda

Fight

and make vampires bleed

Recite

this ex-losers

creed

(Yeeee!)

Alright Muthafuckas!

(Coo-Coooo!)

Fight

Muthafuckas!

(Yeeee!)

Alright Muthafuckas!

(Coo-Coooo!)

Èight

Muthafuckas!

I pledge

that III taste each second

That said I know each

moments a present

III fight

a battle fit for ballads

Alright at two we

hit the palace

I pledge

that we are individuals

That said from you Im indivisible

Fight

and match the blaze of comets

Recite

this ex-losers

promise

The carpet

inquired

if Id lay there again

And where was the

airl

from when there last I had been

The commode refused to speak

as I

made my escape

It knew every subtle nuance of my war torn face

The concreté

outside

felt disrespected

It was partly my fault it had been neglected

At

the precipice of fate

is where I carved my oath With the dagger from my back

And you know what I wrote

(Yeeee!)

Alright

Muthafuckas!

(Coo-Coooo!)

Fight Muthafúckas!

(Yeeee!) Alright Muthafuckas! (Coo-Coooo!) Fight Muthafuckas! Na na naa na, etc.
