

Streetlight Manifesto, Walking Away

(hup, hup, hup)

Well, hello, how are you, why dont you pull up a chair,
I wanna tell you a story cause I really do care about,
Talking, talking, talking away.

Heres to me, to you, to us,
To everything hope it never falls apart,
And we're talking, talking, talking away.

Well you look so fine, and you seem so kind,
And I gotta say that Im having a good time,
Dancing, dancing, dancing away.

Heres, to me, to you, to us,
To everything I hope it never falls apart,
And we're dancing, dancing, dancing away.

(hup, hup, hup)

Could things get any better now?
If they can, I cannot see how,
But as the time goes by, you stop and sigh,
You stop and sigh and then you wonder why.

I cant stop the feeling as Im walking away,
And I can never understand half the things you say,
And we're walking, walking, walking away.

So I said heres to me, to you, to us,
To everything before it fell apart,
And we're walking, walking, walking away.

Things were better then,
You felt that you had to pretend,
But as the time goes by,
You stop and sigh,
You stop and sigh and then you wonder why.
