

Stretch Arm Strong, Black Clouds (Guest Vocals)

Well here you are. (well here you are)
Same story all over again.
You're wondering why. (you're wondering why)
You don't even know where you've been.
Sitting all alone now.
Those walls keep closing in.
You're searching for something never satisfied in the end.

Here you go.
It starts again.
Those black clouds are hanging over you my friend.

So many choices to make. (choices to make)
Which road will you take?
Now the trap is set. (now the trap is set)
Waiting on your next move.
What's it gonna be my friend?
Will you win or will you lose?
It's yours to make now.
Which road will you choose?

Here you go.
It starts again.
Those black clouds are hanging over you my friend.

I often wonder what spell you are living under?
Did you always think that your life would end this way?

Here you go.
Starts again.
And those black clouds are hanging over you my friend.

And those black clouds.
And those black clouds.
And those black clouds.

Breath in breath out.
What is it all about?
Come on you can let it out.
Breath in breath out.
What is it all about?
Come on you can let it out.

Well here you are.
Same story all over again.
You're wondering why.
You don't even know where you've been.
Sitting all alone now.
Those walls keep closing in.
You're searching for something never satisfied in the end.

The end.
