I've betrayed myself so many times.
Searching for the answers that we know we'll never find.
What's the one thing that could put my soul at ease?

A question that we always ask ourselves?
Why can't we give without blaming ourselves?
A selfish nation swallowed up with greed.
We always take more than we need.

Let's bring it back and try to restore an ideal that's been forced to the floor.
Let's bring it back and try to restore an ideal that's been forced to the floor.
To the floor.

To the floor.

And bring it back.
I'll bring it back.
We'll bring it back.
You'd bring it back.

Strike the spark.
Light the flame.
Start the fire.

Strike the spark.
Light the flame.
Start the fire.
I'll be the flame.
We'll be the fire.
