Strike Anywhere, Laughter in a police state

The government say that its what we need to work until we die serving someone else's greed they